English you can actually speak

Most people in Addis Ababa have studied English for years and have almost never been asked to speak it. This course is the other way round: you speak from the first class, and the grammar arrives when you need it.

You pay for one month at a time, and take the next level when you are ready. A free placement test decides where you start — complete beginners start at Level 1.

By the end you can

- ◆ Introduce yourself and hold a conversation with a stranger
- ◆ Take a work phone call without rehearsing it first
- ◆ Write a short professional email and a message to a client
- ◆ Answer the standard interview questions with a structured answer
- ◆ Give an opinion and disagree politely in a meeting
- ◆ Present to a room, with your pronunciation worked on directly
